Amber Michel joined Guild in 2021 as the Director of Housing Services. Having worked in the mental health field for more than 10 years, Amber brings a wealth of experience, most recently managing a team working to implement systems change for mental health and addiction care at M Health Fairview.

She holds a bachelor's degree in sociology from St. Cloud State University and an interdisciplinary master's from the University of Minnesota in sociology and history with an emphasis on social change movements. Amber has served as adjunct instructor at St. Cloud State University, and is a Roy Wilkins Social Justice Community Fellow. Amber also co-founded and served as chair of the board of Reviving Sisterhood, a nonprofit providing leadership development and civic engagement opportunities to Muslim women in Minnesota.

Amber grew up on a wheat farm in Western Kansas but is a Minnesota kid at heart and has settled in Minneapolis with her husband and two cats.

"Community mental health is often challenging, but I am inspired and energized by the way Guild encourages each of us to bring our full authentic selves to work every day."
